

Please do not interfere with individual State laws on the above referenced matter. Considering administrative costs and local needs would lessens existing laws effectiveness and increase federal costs. People wanting this type of law should examine area needs and pay only for their own usages.

Heather L. Morrison,
Indiana State Citizen